BOOST HANDSETS: Network Locking: Boost Mobile handsets are locked to the Optus Network. An $80 fee applies if network locking is removed within the first six months of activation. Alternatively, if you have recharged to the value of $80 no fee applies. Boost Mobile is powered by Optus so here are the details you need to know about the service. You may apply for the Services by purchasing a Handset Package or SIM Pack and providing the required user information. If Optus accepts your application, Optus will supply the Services to you on the terms of Optus' Standard Agreement for supply of the Optus Pre-Paid Mobile Service ('Standard Agreement'). Optus makes no representation whatsoever as to the extent of the mobile digital coverage in the areas in which you intend to use the Service. You must satisfy yourself as to the adequacy of coverage from your own inquiries. Optus coverage maps are available at any Optus outlet. The Optus Pre-Paid Mobile service cannot be used outside Australia for AutoRoam calls or to access SurePage, SureFax, Fax and Data services, 1900 calls or call hold/wait and call diversion services. Call credits are not transferable or redeemable for cash. GST is not payable at the time the Recharge Card is purchased. GST is included in the call charges rate plan.

BOOST REHCARGE: Credits: Credits cannot be converted or redeemed as cash and cannot be applied against other services you have with us, unless we cancel the service for convenience. Boost Mobile SIM card: We own the Boost Mobile SIM card and it remains our property at all times. We are not responsible for any lost or stolen Boost Mobile SIM card. If your Boost Mobile SIM card is lost or stolen and you do not notify us, we may cancel it in accordance with the agreement. Credits on the Boost Mobile SIM card: You cannot make any calls if the credits in your pre-paid account are below the minimum call credit for all call types and you cannot make a call for which the credits in your pre-paid account are insufficient to meet the minimum call credit for calls of that type. We may terminate a call without notice if the credits run out during a call. You must add at least the minimum credit to your Boost Mobile SIM card within the call credit validity period. If you do not, the remaining balance on your pre-paid account will be forfeited. If the balance of your Boost Mobile SIM card is zero you must add at least the minimum credit before the expiry of the additional period. If you do not, we may cancel the service without notice. Phone numbers: You do not own the phone number and your right to use the phone number ends if you no longer obtain the service, unless you port the phone number. We are not liable for any expense or loss due to any variation, withdrawal, suspension or re-assignment of the phone number we may be required to make or you ceasing to have the right to use the phone number if you no longer obtain the service.

Your mobile phone: We make no warranty under the agreement that the mobile phone is suitable for use in connection with the service or any value added service feature, or about the quality of the mobile phone. If you do not obtain the mobile phone from us for use with the service, you are responsible for making sure that all regulatory approvals for your mobile phone have been obtained and your mobile phone complies with all relevant technical regulations and specifications.

BOOST SIM PACKS: Description of the service: The service allows you to make calls and send content from, and receive calls and content to, your mobile phone on our network. To use the service you need to credit your pre-paid account in advance and recharge it as the current credit is used up. You are not sent any bills, invoices or statements. Provision of the service: We will provide the service to you on a non fixed-length agreement until it is cancelled in accordance with the agreement. Use of the service: A Boost Mobile SIM Pack card is required to use the service. To activate the service you must call the service number before the date shown on the SIM Pack. Until then, the service will be limited to calls to emergency services. If not activated before the date shown on the SIM Pack, the service will be cancelled and your mobile telephone number withdrawn. You may recharge or add to the credits on the service by purchasing a recharge card from participating outlets and then adding the voucher amount by dialling 555 on your mobile. Changing the agreement: We may change the agreement by complying with the Telecommunications Legislation (by publishing an advert in a national newspaper if the change will be detrimental to you or telling you directly). Unless otherwise set out in the agreement, you cannot make any changes to the agreement without our consent.

Personal information about you: Personal information about you includes your name, address, credit rating and may include numbers you have called and the time and location of a call.

We may collect, use and disclose personal information about you:

- to decide whether to start, stop or limit supply to you of credit, the service, or products and services of other Boost and Optus group companies. If you do not supply part or all of the personal information we request, we may refuse or limit the supply to you of credit or the service.

- for purposes related to the supply of the service (including account management, business planning, product development) and to provide you with information about promotions, as well as products and services of other Boost and Optus group companies and other organisations. You may opt out of receiving communications that are not related to your account or legally required by contacting customer service.
- from and to: credit reporting agencies, credit providers, Boost and another Optus group company, unrelated third parties, suppliers and joint venture partners (but only for the purposes set out above).
- We may be required or permitted by law to collect, use or disclose personal information about you from and to, for example: the operator of the Integrated Public Number Database, emergency services organisations or to law enforcement agencies. Subject to applicable law, you may access and correct your personal information by contacting us. Further privacy information is available in our Privacy Policy or by contacting customer service.

Use of the service: We will provide the service to you with due care and skill. You must use the service in accordance with the agreement and ensure that any person you allow to use the service complies with the agreement.

Equipment: All Boost and Optus owned equipment remains our property. You are responsible for any damage, loss or theft of any equipment owned by us.

Fault reporting and rectification: We will repair faults within our network. We are not responsible for repairing any fault in the service which is caused by a supplier's network, equipment that is not owned by us or facilities outside our network. If we investigate a fault that is caused by equipment that is not owned by us, we may charge you for investigating and repairing the fault.

If we investigate a fault and determine that the fault is caused by your breach of this agreement, a negligent or fraudulent act or omission by you or a failure of any of your equipment, we may charge you for investigating and repairing the fault.

We will provide a 24 hour fault reporting service for you to report faults. Before reporting a fault you should try to make sure that the fault is not caused by equipment that is not owned by us.

Cost of the service: The cost of the service depends on the pricing plan you select, your use of the service (including, for example, length of call, time and day of call (which may not be the local time where the call is made), destination of call and call type, and your use of any value added service features), and any changes you make to your pricing plan, the value added service features you use or acquire and if you accept the terms of a special.

The cost of each call will be deducted from the current credits on your pre-paid account. You will not be sent any bills, invoices or statements recording calls made. The service charges for outgoing calls are generally based on 30 second intervals over the chargeable calling time, or may be on a per call basis. Calls may include a flagfall. If you would like further details about the charges, please refer to the standard pricing rate table or contact us on 1300 555 002.

We may offer promotions or offers in connection with the service (special). If you accept a special, the price and terms of the special will prevail over those otherwise applicable under the agreement for the duration of the special until the special expires and then the full terms of the agreement will apply.

Taxes: Unless indicated otherwise, the fees and charges set out in the agreement include any taxes (for example, goods and services tax). Where the fees and charges do not include taxes, we may increase those fees and charges in accordance with the agreement.

Complaints and disputes: If you have any complaints in connection with the service, you may complain in writing (via our complaints form or on our website: www.optus.com.au) or by calling us. We will handle your complaint in accordance with our consumer complaints procedure.

If we are unable to resolve your complaint to your satisfaction you may take your complaint through other avenues, such as the Telecommunications Industry Ombudsman, the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission or the Department of Fair Trading or Department of Consumer Affairs in your state or territory.

If your complaint is about a fee or charge for the service, we may suspend payment obligations for that fee or charge until the complaint is resolved. All other fees and charges not in dispute remain due and payable.

Where your complaint is about a significant and sustained loss of access to, or use of, the service and the loss was not as a result of circumstances reasonably attributable to you or non Boost or Optus owned equipment, you may be entitled on request to a refund or a rebate of any access fee for the period in which you access or use was interrupted.

Cancelling the service:

Your right to cancel the service:

You may cancel the service at any time by giving us 30 days notice. You may also cancel the service at any time without liability, by giving us notice, if we breach a material term of this agreement and cannot remedy the breach or do not do so within 30 days of you giving us notice to do so.

If you acquire the service through door-to-door sales, telesales or telemarketing sales, you may cancel the service before the end of the cooling-off period set out in the relevant legislation in your state or territory.

Our right to cancel the service:

We may cancel the service at any time by giving you at least 30 days notice. We may also cancel the service at any time if: there is an emergency, we reasonably suspect fraud by you or another person, you breach a material term of this agreement and cannot remedy the breach, or do not remedy the breach within 30 days of receiving notice from us, we are required to do so to comply with an order, instruction, request or notice of a regulator, emergency services organisation, other competent authority or under law, you die or, if you are in a partnership, the partnership is dissolved and we reasonably believe we are unlikely to receive payment for the amounts due, the service is suspended for more than 14 days, an intervening event prevents the supply of the service for more than 14 days or we are otherwise entitled to do so under this agreement.

How you can cancel the service.

You can notify us that you wish to cancel the service by calling us.

You can also cancel the service by electing to have an equivalent service provided by another carrier or carriage service provider. The carrier or carriage service provider will notify us and we will cancel the service immediately.

What happens if the service is cancelled? If the service is cancelled: you are liable for any charges incurred up to and including the date the service is cancelled. You may have to pay a fee to disable network locking to use your phone on another network (see below).

Suspending the service:

Our rights to suspend the service:

We may suspend the service at any time without liability if: there is an emergency, to allow us or a supplier to repair, maintain or service any part of our network or a supplier's network, we reasonably suspect fraud by you or another person, we believe there has been an unusually high use of the service, we reasonably consider you a credit risk because any amount owing to us or another Optus group company is not paid by its due date and you fail to make that payment within the required period after receiving notice from us or an Optus group company, you breach a material term of this agreement and you either cannot remedy the breach or do not remedy the breach within 30 days after we give you notice to do so, we are required to do so to comply with an order, instruction, request or notice from a regulator, emergency services organisation, other competent authority or under law, there are problems connecting our network to a supplier's network, you become insolvent and we reasonably believe we are unlikely to receive payment for amounts due, or you die or, if you are in a partnership, the partnership is dissolved and we reasonably believe we are unlikely to receive payment for the amounts due or we are otherwise entitled to do so under the agreement.

What happens if the service is suspended? If the suspension was a result of circumstances attributable to you, you may have to pay us a suspension fee and, if you wish to reactivate the service, a reconnection or reactivation fee.

Our additional rights of suspension and cancellation:

We may suspend or cancel the service without notice if: you fail to add at least the required minimum credits, we believe the identification evidence provided by you is false or inadequate, you transfer your Boost SIM card to another party without obtaining our consent or you engage in fraudulent recharge behaviour.

Additionally, we may cancel the service by giving six months notice.

Liability:

Your liability to us:

You are liable to us for any breach of the agreement causing foreseeable substantial loss to us. You are not liable to us for consequential loss which is not a result of something you have done.

Our liability to you:

We accept liability to you in accordance with the Trade Practices Act and other laws. We may be liable to you in connection with the agreement and the supply or interruption of the service only to the extent provided in the agreement. We are not liable to you for consequential loss.

Assignment: We may assign our rights under the agreement to any person. We may transfer our obligations under the agreement to any Boost or Optus group company. We may perform any of our obligations by arranging for them to be performed by another person.

You may assign your rights under the agreement with our prior written consent. You may transfer your obligations under the agreement if the person you wish to transfer them to successfully meets the application requirements for the service.

Intellectual property: You must not infringe another person's intellectual property rights in using the service. If you do so we may suspend or cancel the service without notice.

Information about your rights: Information about your rights may be obtained by contacting the Australian Communications and Media Authority, the Telecommunications Industry Ombudsman, the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission or the Department of Fair Trading or Department of Consumer Affairs in your state or territory.

Additional information about the service:

Coverage

The service is not available in all areas of Australia. Due to technical reasons, we are not able to guarantee that calls to '13' prefix numbers will be diverted to the nearest location for that '13' prefix number.

Use of the service

You must not: make or receive calls or send or receive content on our network other than for your own personal or business use, wholesale any service on our network or use the service in connection with a device that switches or reroutes calls to our from our network. If you do so, we may immediately suspend or cancel the service.

Credits

Credits cannot be converted or redeemed as cash and cannot be applied against other services you have with us, unless we cancel the service for convenience. If the service is not cancelled for convenience, any credits remaining on cancellation of the service are forfeited.

Boost Mobile SIM card

We own the Boost Mobile SIM card and it remains our property at all times. We are not responsible for any lost or stolen Boost Mobile SIM cards. If your Boost Mobile SIM card is lost or stolen and you do not notify us, we may cancel it in accordance with the agreement.

Credits on the Boost Mobile SIM card

You cannot make any calls if the credits in your pre-paid account are below the minimum call credit for all call types and you cannot make a call for which the credits in your pre-paid account are insufficient to meet the minimum call credit for calls of that type. We may terminate a call without notice if the credits run out during a call.

You must add at least the minimum credit to your Boost Mobile SIM card within the call credit validity period. If you do not, the remaining balance on your pre-paid account will be forfeited.

If the balance of your Boost Mobile SIM card is zero, you must add at least the minimum credit before the expiry of the additional period. If you do not, we may cancel the service without notice.

Phone numbers

You do not own the phone number and your right to use the phone number ends if you no longer obtain the service, unless you port the phone number. We are not liable for any expense or loss due to any recovery or recovery and replacement of the phone number we may be required to make or you ceasing to have the right to use the phone number if you no longer obtain the service.

Your mobile phone

You may purchase a mobile phone and other mobile accessories from us under a mobile equipment repayment plan. You will own the mobile phone from when you receive it. You are responsible for the maintenance and repair of the mobile phone (and any accessories you purchase from us), subject to any manufacturer's warranty, and for any insurance for the mobile phone (if you wish the mobile phone to be insured). You may not return the mobile phone or other accessories to us if you cancel the service (unless otherwise required by law, such as during a cooling off period, if applicable to you)

If the service is cancelled before the end of the minimum term or before the end of the equipment payment term, you may have to pay us the sum of any unpaid equipment charges. The terms of this plan are set out in Appendix D to the agreement.

If you do not purchase a mobile phone from us for use with the service, we make no warranty under the agreement that the mobile phone is suitable for use in connection with the service or any value added service feature, or about the quality of the mobile phone. If you do not obtain the mobile phone from us for use with the service, you are responsible for making sure that all regulatory approvals for your mobile phone have been obtained and your mobile phone complies with all relevant technical regulations and specifications.

Network locking: If your mobile phone has been obtained from us it may be programmed to only work on our network. If you wish to use your phone on another network you may have to have network locking removed. To disable network locking you may have to pay a fee.

Blocking your mobile phone: We may activate Boost IMEI blocking on your mobile phone if we reasonably believe your mobile phone is lost or stolen or if you obtain the service from us under false pretences.

Access restrictions: The service cannot be used for some data, fax and paging services, for roaming or to call information services.

Service Features: Various value added service features are available to customers including Caller ID, Voice Mail, Optus Connect2 , SMS, SMS Chat, SMS Games, I24YES, MMS and various mobile games and applications. If you switch your mobile number from us to another provider, any Boost value-added service, such as VoiceMail or WAP, will be unavailable. This means any WAP settings on your phone may be lost.

Caller ID: All new prepaid mobile phone handsets are provisioned with Caller ID functionality, which is activated permanently for all calls. If you wish to remove Caller ID permanently, you should call Customer Service on 1300 555 002.

You may use WAP to access the following value added service features -MMS, Boost Live and MobileMail. GPRS Browsing rates charged at the weekend start from 7pm Friday and ends 7am Monday EST.

MMS and Email MMS: This service feature is only available if you have an MMS compatible handset which is activated for Boost MMS.

Boost MMS is charged per message sent per recipient and Email MMS is charged per message sent (one message can be sent to multiple recipients). Charges are applied regardless of successful delivery or not. If an MMS message is sent to a mobile handset or network that is not Boost MMS enabled or compatible, the message recipient will be sent an SMS message with details of how to access MMS message from the Optus website. You will still be charged for sending an MMS.

Usage charges for MMS are not included in your included call credits unless stated otherwise.

We do not accept any liability for loss or damage as a result of a delay in receiving a message, a message not being secure or not received.

Mobile Games and Applications: Mobile Games and Applications are only available if you have a Java compatible mobile phone handset. The download cost for Mobile Games and Applications will vary for each particular game or application you choose. GPRS usage charges at standard WAP Plus rates according to your data rate plan also apply. The download cost of the Mobile Game or Application will be charged upon successful download onto your mobile phone. If the download fails, the download cost for that Mobile Game or Application will not be charged but you will still be charged for the GPRS usage.

Wireless Internet: This value added service feature provides access to the Internet via a Boost approved mobile phone or other device in Australia using GPRS technology, provided that you have appropriate hardware and software. You must be within Optus GSM Network coverage to use Optus Wireless Internet services.

OPTUS MOBILE FAIR GO POLICY: To ensure the availability of our services to all eligible customers, Boost may request excessive users of Boost calling offers to reduce their use of these calls (outgoing or incoming). If usage continues at an excessive level, Optus may at Optus' discretion: refuse access to these offers; charge a customer standard call rates; suspend a customer's access to the service; change a customer's call rate plan; or disconnect a customer's service. Boost and Optus currently considers 'excessive' use to be usage of more than 300 minutes free per month per mobile (Boost SIM card) on 'yes' International Pre-Paid One Rate'.

We currently consider 'excessive' use of the "Free Nights and New Free Text Anytime" offer to be usage of more than 1,000 minutes and 1,000 text per month per mobile phone (Boost SIM card), "Free Nights" offer to be usage of more than 2,000 minutes free per month per mobile phone (Boost SIM card) and usage of more than 300 minutes free per month per mobile phone (Boost SIM card) for 'yes' international Pre-Paid One Rate. In addition, we may suspend your access to a free time offer without notice where we deem use to be unreasonable.
